

April 2008

Oh Dear.....

Do you remember at school when you got given homework on a Monday to hand in on Friday? If any of you were like me then you were still doing your homework on the bus on the way to school Friday morning. I'm a bit like that today – I am on holiday for 3 weeks leaving tonight. I have known that I had to get this newsletter typed by today to get it out to you in April – and I have left it to the last minute. I haven't liaised with anyone about anything so I'm going to just make it up as I go along.

I would promise that the May newsletter will be a heck of a lot better – but you know me – Scatty to say the least but at least I try.

Anyway, here goes....

Thanks again

Thank you again to all those who have paid up for this year and I know I keep banging on about Subs but I need to let all of you know who haven't paid yet – that if you renew before Draft Day (April 25th) then you only have to pay £10. After Draft day it goes up to £12 so write those cheques now. Cheques need to be payable to: Hawks Fans UK and sent to Dave Bailey, 1 Oakley Road, South Norwood, London SE25 4XG: alternatively you can pay by pay pal.

Draft Day 2008

Sky Sports will show live coverage of the NFL Draft.

For the first time Sky Sports will show live coverage of the opening round as the top prospects are selected. This year's draft takes place at Radio City Music Hall in New York City on Saturday 26 April.

Selection order is determined by team standings from the previous season, with the worst teams getting the best picks. This year's first overall pick will be made by the Miami Dolphins who finished last season with a league-worst 1-15 record, while Super Bowl-winning New York Giants will pick last

Coverage begins at 8pm on Sky Sports 3 and is presented by Kevin Cadle. In New York will be the NFL Network's Rich Eisen who will be alongside former St Louis Ram Marshall Faulk and Dallas Cowboy Deion Sanders, plus ex-San Francisco 49ers head coach Steve Mariucci.

Kevin Cadle said: "This is the perfect chance to see the NFL stars of the future today. I'm sure gridiron fans will be keen to see who their teams select. And there's also the chance to see the Saints and Chargers selections, rookies who could be appearing at Wembley when the two sides clash in October."

We all have our opinions

Our forum is a good way to agree or disagree with other Seahawk Fans. Go take a look especially after the Draft takes place

Wembley Tickets

Just in case you are not aware and have put your name forward for tickets to this game in October, the main sale for the tickets will take place on 29th May. Good Luck to all of you.

Soccer comes to Seattle

Later on this year, Qwest field will no longer be primarily NFL. Seattle has won a franchise for next seasons Major League Soccer and it has just been announced that the team will be named Seattle Sounders. I am sure most of you will keep an eye out for them next season due to their Seattle connection. Look out for ex Premiership players in the future (Ho Ho).

Possible design for Chapter Banner

At the time of writing I have just noticed a post on the forum referring to a possible design for a Chapter Banner. So what do you think? Either post on the forum or let me know your thoughts. Also if you come up with a new design, let us know.

Finally

I hope everyone had a good Easter (not too much snow). Please e-mail with anything of interest for this newsletter.

Love Pops

Go Seahawks !!
